

Dementia Support

Admiral Nurses: (0300 123 1734 or 0845 257 9406 or 01905 734527) (admiralnurses@hacw.nhs.uk or direct@dementia.org)

These are qualified nurses who specialise in dementia and primarily work with the families of the person who has dementia. They can provide information, practical advice and emotional support and can remain a point of contact for as long as you require them.

Carers' Association: (0300 012 4272)

Social Services: (0845 607 2000)

Practical help and support to enable people to continue living independently and consider carers
Emergency Duty team (01905 768020): if someone's safety or welfare is at serious risk

Dementia Advisor – Age UK (0800 008 6077/01905 740950) email:

dementiaadvise@ageukhw.org.uk

Local dementia support can be also be accessed via Age UK by ringing:01905 742494

Alzheimer's Society 01562 823800/01905 621887

Run dementia cafes and offer support

Local dementia support groups and meeting centres can be found via this website:

<https://www.worcester.ac.uk/documents/20210914-Worcestershire-MC-contacts.pdf>
